

Marin County Inclusion Inspiration Series

DISABLING SEGREGATION

A powerful case for inclusive education

Presentation with filmmaker, public speaker, and disability rights advocate Dan Habib. Joined via recording by his son and co-director Samuel Habib

Thurs, March 16th
6:30pm via Zoom

www.specialed.org

Register here!

Habib's most popular keynote presentation is an extended and updated version of his TEDx talk "Disabling Segregation," in which Habib makes a powerful case for ending the systemic segregation of people with disabilities. Habib shares how an inclusive education and social life has prepared his 21-year-old son Samuel for transition to higher education and employment, as well as the powerful impact that inclusion has on students and adults without disabilities.