

Introducing our Kent Middle School All School Read for 2019-20!

The Boy Who Harnessed the Wind
By William Kamkwambe and Bryan Mealer

Our All School Read will begin the week of October 7 and continue into the week of October 14. Please get your copy today from the Book Passage (mention Kent and a portion of your purchase goes back to the Kent library!) or from the Marin County Free Library.

Kent Middle School will host a community viewing of the recent film adaptation of the book on Thursday, November 7 at 6:00 pm in the MP room.

The author will visit Kentfield School District on Thursday, November 21, 2019! Bacich and Kent students will all have the chance to see the author on this date!